

Are you looking for tour and travel ideas for your group, but not sure exactly what your options are? Maybe you are planning a trip to DC for the first time? Well, DC by Foot is here to help. In addition to our Lincoln Assassination and Ghosts of Georgetown walking tours, we have put together several sample itineraries for you to review. Visits organized through your member of Congress or ambassador to the White House can be substitutes for any activity listed on our itineraries. DC by Foot can organize tours of the Pentagon, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Holocaust Museum, the Newseum, the Crime and Punishment Museum, Ford's Theater, and much more.

Itinerary 1 – “More than Monuments-plus” –

The More than Monuments-plus Tour is a very popular option that adds a few more stops to those already apart of our regularly scheduled Mall tour. This tour is ideal for groups who don't have a bus or are just looking for a short guided walking tour option. Duration: 3-4 hours.

Sites included:

1. White House
2. Washington Monument
3. National WWII Memorial
4. Lincoln Memorial
5. Vietnam War Veterans Memorial
6. Korean War Veterans Memorial
7. FDR Memorial
8. Jefferson Memorial
9. US Capitol Building (discussed from afar)

Looking for full or multiple day step-on guide service? We have compiled several itineraries to give you an idea of the possible range your tour could have.

Itinerary 2 – “One Day in DC – the basics”

9am – Tour of U.S. Capitol Building (inside)

11am – Tour of Library of Congress (inside)

12pm – lunch

1pm – Tour of Arlington Cemetery (wreath lying optional)

4pm – Visit US Marine Corp Memorial (Iwo Jima)

5pm – Dinner

7pm – Illuminated “More than Monument-plus tour (see itinerary 1)

Itinerary 3 “Two Days in DC – Focus on Washington”

Day 1 (See Itinerary 2)

Day 2

8am – Visit Mt. Vernon

11:30 – Pentagon 911 Memorial

12pm – Lunch at Pentagon City Mall

1:30pm – Washington Monument (ticketed entry)

3pm – Smithsonian Museums

5pm – Dinner

7pm – Lincoln Assassination Walking Tour

Itinerary 4 “Three Days in DC –

Day 3

8am – Visit National Holocaust Museum

11am – Visit Ford’s Theater and Museum

12pm – lunch

1:30pm – Tour National Cathedral (Embassy Row)

3pm – Visit Newseum or Smithsonian

5pm – Dinner

7pm – Ghosts of Georgetown

Itinerary 4 – DC in 1 Day Guided Tour (with bus)

We believe that this is our best value for you money. We can step onto your bus or we can arrange a bus (or buses) for your group for all or part of the tour. The advantage of this itinerary is that you can get all the sites that a guide would be most beneficial out of the way in just one day. That should allow you to spend your other days at the Smithsonian, visiting the Capitol Building, and other places where a personal guide is not necessary.

This tour could last up to 12 hours and would include the following stops:

(AM)

US Capitol Building

Thomas Jefferson Memorial

Franklin Delano Roosevelt Memorial

Arlington Cemetery

Lunch at Pentagon City Mall

(PM)

911 Memorial at the Pentagon

Air Force Memorial

United States Marine Corp Memorial (IWO Jima)

Georgetown

National Cathedral **

Embassy Row

White House

Dinner (TBD)

(Monuments by Light) – no bus necessary

Washington Monument

WW2 Memorial

Vietnam War Veterans Memorial

Korean War Veterans Memorial

Lincoln Memorial